

Justin G. Ehrlich, L.Ac, M.S.
Board Certified in Acupuncture and
Chinese Herbal Medicine

Curriculum Vitae

Business Address: CORE Orthopaedic Medical Center, P.C.
332 Santa Fe Drive, Suite 110
Encinitas, CA 92024
Phone: (760) 943-6700
Fax: (760) 632-4253

Date of Birth: October 12, 1972
Oban, Scotland

Education: University of Washington
Seattle, WA
B.A. International Studies, 1995

Pacific College of Oriental Medicine
San Diego, CA
M.S. Traditional Oriental Medicine, 2001

Internship: UC San Diego RIMAC, 2001

Apprenticeship: Private Apprenticeship, Bill Helm, OBT, HHP Tui Na (Chinese physical therapy and rehabilitation for acute/chronic musculoskeletal disorders), 1999-2001

Private Apprenticeship, Evert van der Meulen, PT, OMD,
Management of chronic pain with Chinese medicine,
1997-2001

Private Apprenticeship, Kazuo Kawamata, HHP,
Shiatsu for structural integration, 2001-2002

Private Apprenticeship, Matt Callison, L.Ac
Acupuncture for sports injuries and orthopaedic rehabilitation, 1998-2001

Licensure: California, 2002

Appointments: Professor
Pacific College of Oriental Medicine, San Diego, CA,
2001-Present

Professor and Clinical Supervisor
Mueller College, San Diego, CA, 2002-Present

Professor
International Professional School of Bodywork,
San Diego, CA, 2005-Present

North American Head Instructor
Wei Tu'o Martial Arts, San Diego, CA, 1997-Present

Professional Experience:

President and Sole Proprietor, Wei Tu'o External Herbs
San Diego, CA, 2000-2003

Private Practice, Licensed Acupuncturist
San Diego, CA, 2002-2005

Medical Advisor, Enshin Kaikan New Jersey Branch
Osaka, Japan, December 2002

Presentations:

Lecturer: Traditional and modern uses of external herbal applications for use in soft tissue & bone injuries. Longevity Chinese Herbs & Tonics, San Diego, CA, June 1998.

Lecturer: The role of Chinese herbal medicine within traditional martial arts. Longevity Chinese Herbs & Tonics, San Diego, CA, August 2000.

Lecturer: The role of Chinese herbal medicine within traditional martial arts. Wei Tu'o Martial Arts, San Diego, CA, September 2001.

Guest Lecturer: The use of external herbal applications within Traditional Chinese Medicine. Pacific College of Oriental Medicine, San Diego, CA, November 2001.

Instructor: The role of Chinese herbal medicine within traditional martial arts. Wei Tu'o Martial Arts, Bristol, UK, February 2003.

Lecturer: The use of Motor Point Acupuncture in physical therapy. Sharp Memorial Hospital, Rehabilitation Dept., San Diego, CA, August 2003.

Guest Lecturer: The role of external herbal applications within classical and modern Chinese medicine. Seattle Institute of Oriental Medicine, Seattle, WA, October 2003.

Instructor: The use of traditional Tui Na hand techniques.
Mueller College, San Diego, CA, January 2004.

Instructor: The role of Chinese herbal medicine within traditional martial arts. Wei Tu'o Martial Arts,
Hong Kong, PRC, February 2004.

Instructor: Treatment of Upper Extremity Disorders with Tui Na. Mueller College, San Diego, CA, March 2004.

Instructor: Chen Tai Ji 19 Form. Pacific Symposium,
San Diego, CA, November 2003-2005.

Areas of Interest:

Traditional Chinese Martial Arts- 20 years of experience.

Treatment and Management of Acute & Chronic Pain,
Rehabilitative Medicine, Internal Medicine.

Foreign Languages: Japanese (fluent-reading, writing, speaking), Chinese (reading-basic medical), French
(fluent-speaking, reading).